1 PRINCIPLES

1.1 JURIDICAL STRUCTURE

According to the Statutes of the "Middle European Volleyball Zonal Association" (in succession: MEVZA), a competition named "Middle European League" (in succession: MEL) is organized every year under the control of the MEVZA.

1.2 TYPES OF COMPETITION

The MEL is made up of following competitions:

- Middle European League – Men
- Middle European League – Women

1.3 RIGHT OF QUALIFICATION OF TEAMS

Only the teams entered by their National Federation (in succession: NF) can take part in the MEL.

1.3.1

The MEVZA membership of the NF and the final classification in its national competitions, ending until 15 May preceding the start of the MEL season, forms the basis to the right of qualification.

1.3.2

Any NF wishing to enter one or more teams is bound to send the complete final classification of its official competitions (Championships/Cups) in which this/these team(s) has (have) qualified for participation in a MEVZA Competition to the MEVZA Office.

1.3.3

The NF registering teams in the MEL guarantees that its teams fulfil all conditions and shall abide by these regulations (Art. 4.2).

1.3.4

Each NF willing to participate in the MEL is allowed to register two (2) teams in each competition.

The MEVZA Executive Committee might accept further teams of a NF.

The regular participants of MEL are obliged to play in the European Cup Competitions in case they are qualified. In case a NF is already represented with 2 teams playing both EC and MEL, further teams from the same NF have the right to participate in MEL, if there are open spots.

1.3.4.1

The MEL is open for max. 12 MEN teams and max. 12 WOMEN teams.

1.3.4.2

The teams which are allowed to represent their NF in the MEL are:

- The National Champion and/or the National Cup winner, other teams participating in a CEV Clubs competition (European Cup)
- teams with an exceptional approval of CEV and MEVZA
- only teams with no debts to MEVZA are allowed to participate in the MEL

1.4 COMPOSITION OF A TEAM

1.4.4 General Composition of a Team

In any phase of the MEL, a team can be composed of a maximum of 20 persons, i.e. 14 players and the 6 officials, where are mandatory:

- the team manager
- the head coach

If the team comprises less than 14 players, the maximum number of officials remains limited to the 6 persons.

1.4.4 Liberos

Among the selected Players, a number of specialist defensive Players - Liberos - are designated according to the following:

2021/2022 MEVZA League Regulations

- a. For a Team composed of 13 Players or more: two Liberos,
- b. For a Team composed of max. 12 Players, up to two Liberos,

1.5 QUALIFICATION OF PLAYERS

Only players registered on the team's collective MEL license (MEL-01), validated by MEVZA, can take part in the MEL. Each of these players must fulfil the following conditions:

- He/she must possess only one national license valid exclusively for the club which applies for the European Cup license.
- If he/she is a foreign player, he/she must fulfil all conditions regarding the right to play in a club of another country according to all provisions outlined in the FIVB and CEV Regulations, dealing with international transfers and determining the player's Federation of Origin. The transfer procedure in the VIS system has to be confirmed by all parties before the player has the right to participate in the MEL.
- Only players not suspended by CEV and/or FIVB for the competition concerned are allowed to participate in the competition.

1.6 LICENSES

Each club has to enter the club responsible and all members of its team using the login area of www.mevza.org. This collective team license has to be confirmed by the respective NF. The procedure will be laid down in the MEL Official Communications.

Before each match of the MEL the team manager must indicate on the collective team license the shirt number of each player as well as the name of the libero(s) and the captain of the team.

The certified collective license and the official identity paper of each player must be presented to the referee and the Supervisor before the beginning of each match.

2 COMPETITION CLAUSES

2.1 RULES OF THE GAME

The matches in the MEL are played according to the Rules of the game in force laid down by the FIVB (2021-2024 edition).

2.2 COMPETITION PHASES

The MEL competition is divided into 2 different phases:

- the MAIN PHASE,
- the FINAL PHASE

2.2.1 Main phase

Round matches (round robin).

2.2.2 Final phase

Final Four tournaments. The first three teams of the league round plus the organizer are qualified for the Final Four. If the organizer is ranked among the first three teams also the fourth ranked team of the league round is qualified.

2.3 OFFICIAL RATIFICATION OF MATCHES FOR THE LEAGUE SYSTEM

In the Main Phase, the ranking of the teams is determined first according the number of matches won. In case of a tie the teams will be classified in descending order by the number of points awarded for matches won and lost as follows:

- match won 3:0 or 3:1 - 3 points
- match won 3:2 - 2 points
- match lost 2:3 - 1 point
- match lost 1:3 or 0:3 - 0 points

If still a tie persists the teams will be classified in descending order by the set quotient resulting from the division of the number of all sets won by the number of all sets lost.

If still a tie persists, they will be classified in descending order by the set points quotient resulting from the division of all set points scored by the total of set points lost during all sets.

If the tie continues, as per the sets points quotient, the teams are ranked according to the result(s) of the match(es) they have been disputing between them.

3 COMPETITION CALENDAR

3.1 MAIN PHASE

The standard competition calendar for the Main Phases & Final Phases will be published in the MEL Official Communications.

The definite competition calendar for each season will be determined by the MEVZA Executive Committee and published under www.mevza.org.

3.2 FINAL PHASE

The final round (Final Four) is played during the month(s) February or March. The exact dates for each season will be determined by the MEVZA Executive Committee.

3.3 STARTING TIME OF THE MATCHES

In all matches of MEL the matches shall start between 15.00h and 20.30 h.

Match starting time earlier than 15:00 is possible only upon written agreement of both teams and the official approval by of the competition director.

3.4 DEFINITE COMPETITION DATE AND STARTING TIME

The decision on which of the competition days and at which starting time a match will be played will be made by the receiving team one month before starting date of MEL at the latest.

Any change in the competition date respectively starting time of the match will only be allowed after the written agreement and the approval of the competition director.

In case of no agreement between opponents about the competition date and time it will be laid down by the competition director.

4 REGISTRATION & ADMINISTRATIVE DEADLINES

4.1 FINAL CLASSIFICATION IN NATIONAL COMPETITIONS

Any NF wishing to register one or more teams for the MEL shall, in using the MEVZA form like announced in the Official Communications, send the final classifications of its official competitions (Championships and Cups) completed by 15th May preceding the start of the European Cup season by registered mail to the MEVZA Office.

4.2 REGISTRATION

The registration of teams must be done like announced in the Official Communications to the MEVZA Office.

The MEVZA forms represent the only official document by which the NF formally and definitely applies for the participation of its team(s).

The inscription of a team means that the NF and the club concerned studied the Official Regulations and Official Communications and strictly commit to fulfil all related conditions.

4.3 RESULTS, STATISTICS, SCORE SHEETS & SUPERVISOR'S REPORT

The organizing team must communicate the result of the match WITHOUT DELAY immediately after the end of the game like laid down in the MEL Official Communications.

The organizing team has to provide MEVZA with live scoring and the match statistics like laid down in the MEL Official Communications and has to upload the files right after the end of each match to the MEVZA server.

The original score sheet(s) and the Supervisor's Report must be sent to the MEVZA Office by registered letter on the first working day following the match or tournament.

Every delay in communicating the results or mailing the score sheet(s) and the Supervisor's Report will be sanctioned.
