PRELIMINARY REMARKS

The organization of the “Middle European League” (in succession: MEL) is entrusted to the Middle European Volleyball Zonal Association (in succession: MEVZA), Prinz-Eugen-Strasse 12, 1040 Vienna, Austria, phone: +385 91 2446 048, e-mail: info@mevza.org

MEL 2024/2025 is a club competition, organized annually, during the competition season from October 2024 until April 2025, between clubs affiliated to National Federations members of MEVZA, with possibility of including clubs from other territories, provided the respective approval of the CEV.

All National Federations members of MEVZA (in succession: NFs) and their affiliated teams (clubs), as well as any other clubs with approval from the CEV, willing to participate in the MEL 2024/25 are obliged to follow the rules laid down in the Official Communications of the MEL 2024/25.

The matches in the MEL 2024/25 are played according to the Rules of the game in force, as laid down by the FIVB (2021-2024 edition).

2024/25 MIDDLE EUROPEAN LEAGUE

1. TYPES OF COMPETITIONS

Middle European League Women (MELW)

Middle European League Men (MELM)

1.1. Competition System

The competition will be organized as Tournament based League system competition during the Main Phase.

Hosts for the Tournaments (in succession: Organizers) shall be determined by competition serpentine.

The Tournaments shall be organized during the week days, in the weeks with no CEV Cups competitions.

First 4 MEL ranked clubs after the end of the Main Phase are proceeding to the Semifinals SF1 and SF2 of the Final Four tournament.

Final Four Tournament will be organized in a country applied and verified by the MEVZA Executive Committee, upon the completion of the Bidding process, which will be announced after the 3rd Tournament round.

MEL Champion shall be the winner of the match Winner SF1 – Winner SF2.

MEL Runner-up shall be the loser of the match Winner SF1 – Winner SF2.

MEL 3rd ranked team shall be the winner of the match between Loser SF1 and Loser SF2.

1.2. Official ratification of MEL 2024/25 matches

In the Main Phase, the ranking of the teams is determined first according to the number of matches won. In case of a tie, the teams will be classified in descending order by the number of points awarded for matches won and lost as follows:

→ Match won 3:0 or 3:1	-	3 points
→ Match won 3:2	-	2 points
→ Match lost 2:3	-	1 point
→ Match lost 1:3 or 0:3	-	0 points

If still a tie persists, the teams will be classified in descending order by the set quotient resulting from the division of the number of all sets won by the number of all sets lost.

If still a tie persists, they will be classified in descending order by the set points quotient resulting from the division of all set points scored by the total of set points lost during all sets.

If the tie continues, as per the sets points quotient, the teams are ranked according to the result(s) of the match(es) they have been disputing between them.

2. RIGHT OF PARTICIPATION AND DUTIES OF PARTICIPATING CLUBS

2.1. Right of participation

MEL is open for a maximum of 14 MEN and 14 WOMEN teams.

The club(s) eligible to participate in MEL 2024/25 are clubs coming from NFs members of MEVZA, as well as any other NF, provided that they have written approval from the CEV, and fulfill at least one of the requirements as follows:

2024/25 MIDDLE EUROPEAN LEAGUE

- National Champion and / or the runner up of the National Championship, provided that the same club(s) participate in CEV Cups
- National Cup winner and / or runner up of the National Cup, provided that the same club(s) participate in CEV Cups
- Any other club(s) participating in CEV Cups (any CEV club competition)
- Club(s) with and exceptional approval for participation, coming from countries that are non-MEVZA members

All MEL participants are in obligation to participate in both, domestic National Championships and the European Cup Competitions during the same season.

Only teams with no debts to MEVZA will be allowed to participate in MEL 2024/25.

2.2. Organizational duties

Each team has the duty to respect the set deadlines and defined Competition Calendar, namely concerning the hosting / organization of the Tournament.

2.2.1. Duties of the Organizer

- Sending information to the visiting team(s) and referees about every Tournament using the respective MEVZA Tournament Handbook template not later than ONE week before the respective Tournament.
- Provide information about recommended accommodation to visiting teams. Teams are encouraged to arrange the accommodation services reciprocity, but it is not mandatory.
- To guarantee the visiting team(s) a 60 minutes training session on the competition day, whereby the training sessions shall take place in the competition hall under the same conditions as during the match (i.e. lighting, installation of technical facilities within and around the playing area, etc).
- Organize full board basis accommodation for international officials (referees and Supervisor) in a hotel with an adequate service (min. 3*) for the entire duration of their stay
- Enable smooth running of the competition, providing adequate man power on site

- Only players not suspended by CEV and/or FIVB for the competition concerned are allowed to participate in the competition.

12.4. Licenses

This collective team license has to be confirmed by the respective NF. MEVZA Competition manager will provide all participating clubs with the license registration form that will have to be filled in, confirmed by the respective NF and sent back to MEVZA Competition Manager. The procedure will be laid down in the MEL “User Guidelines for Organizers”.

The MEL 2024/25 instruction for the player’s registration is also available in the document called: “User Guidelines for Organizers”, as laid above.

Before each match of the MEL the team manager must indicate on the collective team license the shirt number of each player as well as the name of the libero(s) and the captain of the team.

The certified collective license and the official Identification document (passport / ID) of each player must be presented to the referee and the Supervisor before the beginning of each match.

13. HYGIENE GUIDELINES

As a prevention of the coronavirus pandemic situation, all teams are requested to strictly follow the active and valid Hygiene Regulations of the hosting Organizing country, set up by respective governmental institutions. Any possible amendments will be announced and published accordingly.
